MoreSteam offers a full online Lean Six Sigma training curriculum and certification program for individuals and process improvement deployments.

Over 1/2 million professionals from organizations of all sizes have chosen MoreSteam training.

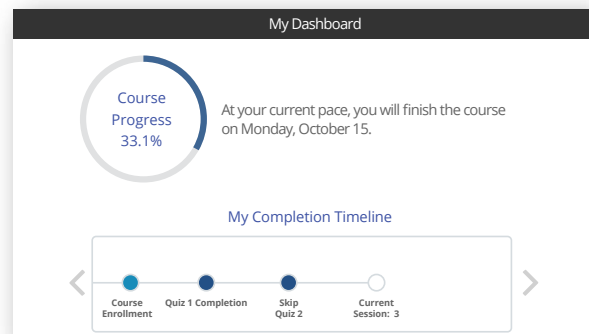

Why Choose MoreSteam's Online Training?

1. Practice reinforces learning and builds capability.

Our courses use interactive exercises, quizzes, toolsets and simulations that prepare you to complete real projects. MoreSteam training offers challenging learning opportunities using a multimedia blend designed for adults.

2. On-demand content means complete flexibility.

You control the pace of progression, no matter where you are or when you need it. You have complete freedom to explore and revisit lessons.

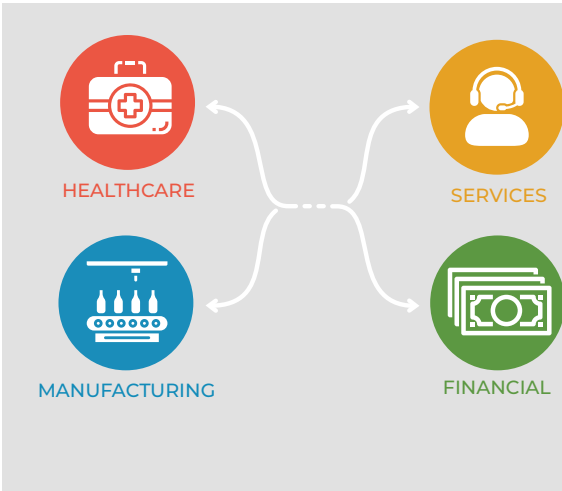

3. Our eLearning is more effective and affordable.

Our courses cost roughly 20% of instructor-led classroom training. With MoreSteam's eLearning, you eliminate travel and materials expenses (for you or the instructor) and make the best use of available time.

The Most Effective Form of Training

MoreSteam’s online training provides scheduling flexibility, easy access, self-paced learning, responsive quizzes, and more. The mixed media format reinforces key lessons in a variety of workplace contexts to help you retain the material.

Our eLearning is easily scaled to match your program’s size. MoreSteam materials are also easily integrated into existing classroom content to create a unique blended training model.

Customize Your Course to Fit Your Needs

Our Black, Green and Yellow Belt courses come in Healthcare, Service, Manufacturing and Financial Services versions to provide the most relevant examples and exercises.

Black and Green Belt training also includes integrated tutorials for either EngineRoom®, Minitab®, or JMP® software.

Our Yellow and Green Belt courses are available in a growing number of foreign languages.

Approved, High-Quality Content

While live training classes are highly dependent on the skills of individual instructors, MoreSteam’s courses provide a standard, high-quality learning experience.

MoreSteam is the exclusive provider of online Lean Six Sigma content for the American Society for Quality (ASQ), which regularly reviews and approves the content. Our materials are preferred by several major partner universities and consultancies.
